

Media release

10 December, 2014

Ministry and NZEI agreement

The Ministry of Education has reached agreement with the NZEI on joint working parties that will look at ways to further raise student achievement.

Terms of Reference for the process have been agreed between the Ministry and NZEI and can be found at <http://www.education.govt.nz/ministry-of-education/specific-initiatives/investing-in-educational-success/working-with-the-education-sector/#NZEI> or at www.nzei.org.nz/joint-initiative

The working parties will commence in February 2015 and report back by the end of May 2015, at the latest.